Political Complexion of Those Who Favored the Chinese Bill.

A Larger Proportion of Republicans Vote for It in the House Than in the Senate.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, March 24.—In view of the overwhelming majority by which the Chinese bill was passed by the House, and the practically two-thirds vote by which it passed the Senate, there is

NO LONGER ANY TALK ABOUT ITS VETO,

And even if the President were capable of entertaining the idea, the bill would unquestionably be repassed over his veto. An analysis of the vote on the final passage of the measure without any amendment shows that a

MUCH LARGER PROPORTION OF REPUBLICANS

Voted for it in the House than in the Senate, there being 65 Republicans and 102 Democratic Representatives recorded in the affirmative, and 61 Republicans and 4 Democrats in the negative. The vote on Kasson's amendment, to reduce the term of suspension to ten years was made up as follows: In favor of amendment, 95 Republicans and 5 Democrats; against amendment, 34 Republicans and 97 Democrats. In these statements, seven or eight Greenback and Independent members, who voted, are classified according to their customary affiliations on political questions other than financial, and no account is taken of members who are paired or who dodged voting on either side, it being impossible at present to ascertain the facts in regard to them.

BUTTERWORTH'S AMENDEENT

To reduce the term of suspension to fifteen years, obtained eighty-one affirmative votes against ninety-nine on a division, and all the amendments offered were rejected by vive voce votes, which were, judging from the sound, so overwhelming that no one attempted to call for a division on them. Among the amendments thus decisively rejected, were several that aimed at restricting the operations of the bill to Chinese who came here under labor contracts and to criminals and diseased persons, and many other amendments of which notice had been given, were sensibly withdrawn by their authors.

PAGE SURPASSED THE EXPECTATION

Of his friends by the character of the short extemporaneous speech with which he closed the debate. The corporations to which he referred as having united to defeat the bill, are the Central Pacific and Northern Pacific Railroad Companies, and the Chinese Six Companies. He also referred to J. P. G. Kennedy, of Washington, the agent of the Chinese Companies.

THE SPOILS TO BE DIVIDED.

The Post to-morrow will print an interview with Blaine on the Chile-Peru matter. Blaine says that Peru is to be desolated and destroyed and the spoils divided between Chile and the English bondholders and the speculators who furnished Chile the means to carry on the war, and that Trescott is forbidden to protest; that it is a surrender of American commercial interests and the impairment of American prestige, not only in Chile and Peru, but in South America. One million dollars would have reimbursed Chile's war expenses, and she has taken from Peru property worth fifteen hundred millions in repayment, and the United States stands by without protest. It was the opportunity of the century blindly sacrificed.

REFUSED TO CONFIRM.

The Senate Executive session yesterday refused to confirm Cooper as Revenue Collector of North Carolina on account of the opposition of Don Cameron and Jones of Nevada. Mott, the present Collector, and Cooper are said to be trying to Mahonize the State. Keogh, ex-Secretary of the Republican Central Committee of that State, violently opposed the coalition as dangerous to Republicanism in North Carolina. Cooper was rejected by two majority. It would seem by this that Jones and Cameron oppose Mahone's movement.

THE MISSOURI AND MISSISSIPPI.

The Senate Committee on the improvement of the Mississippi and its tributaries have agreed upon the bill appropriating $5,000,000 for improvement of the Mississippi; also, $1,000,000 for the Missouri river.

M'DOWELL TO BE RETIRED.

General McDowell is shortly to be retired.

Leading Democrats in the House Opposed to the Bill.

NEW YORK, March 24th.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent says of the passage of the Chinese bill that "leading Democrats in the House said to me to-day, I am opposed to the whole theory of the bill, and would like to vote against it, but I must keep solid with my constituents, and am afraid to vote for any amendment." This was the feeling doubtless of many others, both Democrats and Republicans, who voted for the bill virtually under duress.

ADMIRAL SCOTT DEAD.

Rear-Admiral Gustavus H. Scott, U. S. Navy, retired, died last night.

EASTERN.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

The Dead Poet.

BOSTON, March 24—4 P. M.—Henry W. Longfellow is dead.

Prosperous Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 24.—Information from nearly every section of the State represents the crop prospects as unusually flattering. Winter wheat looks well, and plowing is already well advanced. In some parts of southern Illinois it is feared that the fruit crop may fail. Farmers report stock to be in from ten to twenty per cent. better condition than this time last yaar.

Provisions for two Weeks.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 24.—People on the Sunflower river now have two weeks' provisions and grain for their stock. The outlook is now more favorable.

A $250,000 Fire in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, March 24.—Soon after two o'clock in the morning a fire of unknown origin broke out in W. H. Southworth's wholesale and retail grocery. Nothing is left of the large block except the ruined walls, and the adjacent buildings are more or less seriously damaged. Southworth's loss is estimated at $140,000, insurance $116,000; J. Krauss & Co., dealers in carpets and furniture, lost $50,000, insurance $33,000; other losses, $25,000. Incendiarism.

Seven Hangings in One Day.

MIDDLEBURY, Pa., March 24.—Jonathan Maler was hanged this morning for participating in the murder of John and Gretchen Kuntzler, December 7th. He was courageous and religious on the scaffold, and said he knew nothing of the murder until after it occurred.

ANGELICA, N. Y., March 24.—John C. McCarthy was hanged this morning for the murder of Patrick Mackey. He indignantly declared his innocence.

ROCK ISLAND, March 24.—Wm. Heilwager was hanged to-day for the murder of his daughter.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., March 24.—John A. Nevlin, the convicted murderer of Samuel Pennington, in February, 1880, was hanged this morning. After he mounted the scaffold the doomed man exhibited a knife which he had concealed on his person, and thus demonstrated that he had at no time desired to commit suicide.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—The first execution here in six years occurred in the county courtyard to-day. At noon Edgar Frank Small was hanged for the murder of Nicholas Jacoby. Small stoutly maintained his entire innocence and did not falter on being led to the gallows. His death was instantaneous.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 24.—Frank and Henry Rumberg were hanged at 10:40 A. M. for the murder of Daniel Trentman.

PACIFIC COAST.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUDGET.

The Democracy Reorganizing.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—The sub-Committee of Ten, appointed several weeks ago to prepare a system for the reorganization of the Democracy of San Francisco, have issued a circular report embodying a detailed and elaborate plan for accomplishing the purpose. Among other suggestions it is proposed to organize forty-seven clubs. On the question of the number of clubs the Committee are divided. As yet neither plan has been ratified. It is the purpose of the Committee to effect a thorough and radical reorganization of the Democratic party in this city.

CONTINUED FOR ONE MONTH.

The Sunday law cases were called in the police court this morning and continued for one month.

Warm Weather.

RIVERSIDE, March 24.—The weather is uncomfortably warm—the warmest of the season. The snow is rapidly disappearing from the mountains.

LARGE NUMBER OF VISITORS.

The number of visitors to-day (the last of the fair) is the largest since the opening. The committee of awards are at work and will be ready to report this evening. The exercises this evening will include several papers by prominent horticulturists, and the announcement of prizes. The fair is a success and fully up to the expectation of the managers. The programme was cut short last night.

No Bidders.

NEVADA CITY, March 24.—There were no bidders when the property of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, in this county, was offered at the delinquent tax sale. The County Tax Callector had instructions from the State Board of Equalization to offer it only at a time when no outside bidders were prepared to take it, so that it might revert to the State.

Attached for Taxes.

CHICO, March 24.—Sheriff Sprague of this county to-day attached a Central Pacific Railroad freight train for taxes. A $20,000 bond being given, the train was released.

In his annual message the Mayor of Oakland says that the luxuries in our school department could be cut off to advantage—for instance, music, drawing and the languages. The Mayor holds that the tarpayers should not be forced to pay for these luxuries. That the public schools are for furnishing a practical calling in life, and these extra studies are not essential.

The experts appointed by the Grand Jury of San Joaquin county to examine into the books of the county officials find that they are correct.

FOREIGN.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

THE CZAR CONGRATULATES HIM.

The Czar telegraphed a congratulatory message to Emperor William, expressing the hope that his life, so necessary to the peace of Europe and maintenance of the friendly relations between Russia and Germany, might be long preserved.

SOCIETY TO ENCOURAGE MANUFACTURES.

We have before alluded to the matter of an organization for the encouragement of manufactures amongst us. That the subject may not be passed over without an effort to give it shape and life, we again allude to it. And we are prompted to do so from the fact that we are daily importing many things we could as well manufacture here, and the doing so would give employment to thousands who now are compelled to leave us because lacking the capital to buy and stock a farm, and are unable to procure employment at their trades. We will allude to a few items it would appear we should endeavor to manufacture here. Our wool should be all scoured and made into yarn, and as much made into blankets and cloths as will meet the market. There is certainly little sense in shipping our wool to New England, and shipping back the manfactured clothing, thus paying two freights where we should pay none. And let it be remembered that about sixty per cent. of the freight on our wool is for the dirt and burrs it contains. We have now one small woolen mill, and we hope to see it grow to the capacity of hundreds of employes, and be duplicated by many others, and that there may be as appendages scores of manufactories, or enough to equal our wants.

Our hides are baled and shipped to Eastern tanneries and go thence to the boot and shoe factories, and return to us in the made up articles or harnesses. Here again we pay two freights when we should pay none, and furnish labor to hundreds of men, who, if provided with labor here, would contribute largely to the prosperity of the community. We are aware it has been argued that we have to import our tanning material. But admitting this, the difference is still one freight in our favor as well as the profit to accrue from the trade of the hundreds of operatives the industry would call about us.

In our mountains, in distances of from eight to twenty-five miles, are immense quarries of limestone, and from them we should be manufacturing for export instead of sending our thousands annually to enrich the manufacturers of other places.

In our asphaltum beds and oil fields lie the deposits that should set hundreds of men at work, delving, boring and refining, and give the community an immense revenue. There are other articles we could mention, and they will readily suggest themselves to the reader, who will be convinced that we have enough material to make us quite a manufacturing centre should our resources be utilized. Scarcity of fuel has hitherto been considered a drawback upon manufactures here, but the recently invented appliances for burning crude petroleum have measurably done away with that objection. And recent speculations render quite certain the belief that were the waters of the Los Angeles gathered at some point six or eight miles up and brought in pipes, under one or two hundred foot pressure it would yield a considerable power, without at all interfering with our irrigating supply. So that when we come to investigate the situation closely, we are far from being so poorly off for power as we have hitherto imagined ourselves to be.

The formation of such a society as we have hinted at would be of great benefit, even if no manufactories were the immediate result, if a proper effort should be made through it to obtain statistics of our production of staples, amount of importation of articles made from such material as we have in abundance, and all items bearing upon the power obtainable for driving machinery and its cost.

As we write this we can not forget what we now have in the way of manufactories. Our flouring mills are extensive and excellent—our lumber-dressing and working machinery equal to the best, and our pork-packing, canning and drying houses, and ice factory, are equal to our present wants and resources. Let us now see what we can add to them of interest and profit, remembering that he who can provide remunerative employment for the always toiling masses, is a public benefactor.

LONGFELLOW.

The death of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow will prove an unexpected shock to most of our readers, for, although he had been indisposed for several days, it was not supposed that his illness would result fatally. The deceased poet had, however, passed the three score years and ten of the psalmist. He was born at Portland, Maine, February 27, 1807, his father being an eminent lawyer of that city. He was graduated at Bowdoin College at the early age of eighteen, and had already composed poems, some of which will endure as long as the English language. In the year following his graduation he accepted the professorship of belles lettres at Bowdoin, with the privilege of devoting three years to study in Europe. On his return he entered upon his duties and resigned the position in 1836, shortly afterward accepting a like chair at Harvard, continuing to occupy the same until 1854. He then made Cambridge his residence, and continued to live there until his death. He received academic honors from most of the colleges of our own country, as well as from the two great English universities. In that country, also, his works are almost as well known as they are in his native land. Yesterday he was the greatest of all living poets who used the English tongue. His poems are unexcelled in purity, sweetness, and refinement, and seem to have emanated from that subtile essence of beauty forming the natural atmosphere of his mind. On whose brow shall rest the laurel worn so long by him? As yet his voice is mute among us.

THE NEXT R. R. MOVE.

Among the railway magnates the leaders are marshaling their forces for the coming campaign. New York and San Francisco are allied in arms against Boston, and the struggle will be over the possession of the key to the Mexican system of railways, now in embryo, but of transcendant import, in the not very distant future, to American manufacturers and merchants. Boston's strength lies in acting on the defensive, and "possession is nine points of the law," but, in this case, as in many others, it is very likely that victory will perch upon the banners of those possessing the heaviest artillery, or, what to-day makes artillery move—double eagles. Gould and Huntington are veterans of tenacious purpose, and almost unparalleled audacity; taking a leaf out of the book of Sherman, they may boldly penetrate within the enemy's lines, and march by a route of their own to victory. Within one month the move will be apparent to all; before a twelve-month shall have passed, the contest will be decided.

MASON'S CASE.

The case of Mason is certainly a hard one. For eighteen years his record as a soldier had been exceptionally good. During that time he had never been in the guard-house, even for the most trivial offense, and had won the confidence of his superiors and the respect of those subordinate to him. His punishment also involves the innocent, for his wife and little ones now appeal for public aid. The majesty of the law has asserted itself sufficiently, and the right of society to be protected—even in the person of that vile thing in the likeness of a man, who, before achieving a merited death, has given his name, a donatio inter vivos, to the targets of shooting galleries—sufficiently vindicated. Let twice-blessing mercy now claim in turn her right to appear before the magnanimity of the nation embodied in its chief executive.

ANAGRAMS.

Here are some anagrams that will please the young folks, and some of the old ones. The word Presbyterian, by a shake like the turn of the kaleidoscope, is "best in prayer," and Penitentiary, "nay, I repent it." Old England easily becomes "golden land," and what could better describe the state of busy editors than "so tired" of reading and writing? Astronomers are "moon-starers" of course, and is not the Telegraph a "great help?"

IN Oakland, the other day, a city election resulted in the choice of the whole Republican ticket.

Police Pickings.

Robert Hunter, for stealing some pork of different varieties from a store in Sonoratown, was sentenced.

The trial of Samuel Prager for violating the Sunday law, was set for Monday, April 3d, at 10 A. M.

A new trial for Philippi was set for Saturday, April 8th, at 10 A. M.

The trial of Charles McGraffey, charged with stealing a buggy cushion, was set for next Tuesday at 10 A. M. The defendant was admitted to bail in the sum of twenty dollars.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

The Chinese Bill in the Hands of the President.

Assurances That He Will Sign the Bill, Notwithstanding the Pressure Brought to Bear to Veto it.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24.—The Chinese Bill was to-night delivered to President Arthur, and now only awaits his signature to become a law. It will doubtless be sent to the Secretary of State to-morrow, in accordance with the usual custom of submitting every bill received by the President to the head of the appropriate executive department for examination prior to its final approval, and in the ordinary course of business the bill will not be returned to the White House before Monday. Whether its return be hastened or not, however, there is very little prospect for any announcement of the President's action upon it at so early a date as to-morrow, and a delay of several days need not occasion any alarm or uneasiness. Senator Jones, of Nevada, and Miller, of California, and Representative Page, all of whom have talked with the President, both before and since the Bill's final passage, continue to express entire confidence that notwithstanding the heavy pressure brought to bear upon him in favor of a veto, he will certainly sign it.

INGERSOLL ON THE CANAL.

The Eads ship railway committee had another hearing to-day. Captain Merry, of San Francisco, opposed the scheme, and Col. Ingersoll asked for a Panama Canal Protectorate from this Government. He did not ask a dollar of aid, but only wanted no interference. Work was progressing finely and the canal would probably be finished before Congress decides what to do in the premises. If a respectable Chinese policy was adopted by this Government, there would be a traffic with China far greater than now passes through the Suez Canal.

GRANT USING HIS INFLUENCE.

It is reported to-day that Gen. Grant, during his visit here, is using his influence to effect the retirement of Maj.-Gen. McDowell and the promotion of Brig.-Gen. Pope.

A LARGE PETITION.

A petition for the pardon of Sergeant Mason, with 12,000 signatures, has been received from Toledo.

PETITION FOR HABEAS CORPUS.

Liddy Sawyer, a friend of Mason's, to-day filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to bring Mason before the Supreme Court, which will be answered Monday.

THE GOVERNMENT EXTENDS MORE RELIEF.

The Secretary of War has ordered a quarter of a million of rations to be sent to the Mississippi and Arkansas sufferers from the floods.

A LARGE APPROPRIATION.

A bill has been reported in the House appropriating $6,863,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi river.

SHIPHERD HAS THE NEURALGIA.

Shipherd is confined to his bed with the neuralgia, which will probably last several days, and in consequence of which the investigating committee has adjourned.

GILROY, March 24.—The first case under the Sunday law was tried to-day by a jury, and resulted in a conviction. The charge was for selling cigars.

Compromised with the Railroad.

SACRAMENTO, March 24.—About two weeks ago the Board of Supervisors of this county ordered the District Attorney to commence action to recover the delinquent taxes due from the railroad companies for 1880–81. The railroad companies proposed to compromise on the basis of 60 per cent, basing their offer on the ground that the assessment was in excess of the value of the property. The District Attorney advised the acceptance of the compromise. In the discussion which ensued it was shown from the records that the average assessment in this county had been at the rate of $8,000 per mile, while the valuation of the State Board of Equalization was on a basis of $25,000 per mile. The Board directed the District Attorney to accept the compromise proposed, and judgment will be entered up accordingly.

Asa Ellis has disposed of his interest in his Duarte property for $8,000.

Mr. Banbury has sold his Pasadena place to a man from Montana for $15,000.

Workmen are busy grading Fourth street, off Hill, and laying down a water main.

The Phillipi case will cost about seven hundred dollars when all expenses are paid.

Call at Geo. Giegerich's candy store for some of his pure home made candies, cakes, etc.

H. W. Stoll, of the soda water manufactory, says the present 'ot spell means business for him.

The carpenters have the Presbyterian church all ready for roofing. The work upon it is going on rapidly.

An "utter" bonnet, with a big sunflower upon it, is the attraction of a milliner's show window on Spring street.

Laborers were active yesterday removing the debris of the Esperanza building on Main street. A new structure is to be immediately erected.

R. H. Carter, of Wyoming Territory, has purchased the residence of the late D. B. Randall, and expects to make some improvements to the amount of about one thousand dollars.

Mr. Renshaw has opened a studio at 81 New High street, opposite Pico House, where he will receive orders for all kinds of ornamental glass for memorial, church and mansion windows, transoms, etc. See card in "New To-Day."

"Prof." Strohm of the gymnastic department of the Athletic Club, wishes the "boys" to understand that he is on duty every Friday night to give instruction, and they must be present.

Thomas Strohm, of the First street grocery store, has moved his house from Vine to First street, thus giving him more facilities for handling his large stock of groceries, provisions, etc. Tom has just received a large consignment of first-class canned goods.

Mr. Blowers, the great raisin man of Yolo county, came over from Riverside yesterday, accompanied by his wife, and also Mr. Giddings and wife from the same place. They will take carriages and visit Rose's, Titus', Santa Anita and the Villa to-day.

Mrs. Jeanne C. Carr of Pasadena deserves great credit for her untiring and well directed efforts in behalf of silk culture. If California possessed fifty or a hundred more such enterprising and intelligent workers, sericulture would soon become, as it should be, one of the prominent and permanent industries of the State.

It is a comfortable feeling—to realize that if fire does burn your home or place of business you are safely insured. The old reliable "Hartford" is one of the oldest and best companies in the country. Mr. Wm. Lacy is the General Agent for Southern California and is ably assisted by Geo. B. Drakenfeld, who is a competent and popular insurance agent.

A. C. Doan, for the past three or four years one of the most efficient and popular clerks at the American Cash Store, has severed his connection with that house, and will hereafter be connected with the new grocery house of J. D. Burch & Co., on Spring street, opposite the postoffice, as soon as the new building will be completed.

Rev. Earl Cranston, D. D., of Denver, Colorado, one of the most eloquent and successful ministers of Methodism, has consented to remain in the city over Sunday, and will preach at the University on Sunday at 11 o'clock. The friends of the college are most cordially invited to be present and hear this distinguished scholar and gentleman who has filled successfully the leading pulpits of the West.

A Chance for Our Boys.

Hon. G. Wiley Wells yesterday received a letter from Hon. R. Pacheco announcing a vacancy from this District in the Naval Academy, and appointing him Chairman of a committee of examiners to examine applicants for the vacancy. The other gentlemen invited to compose the board are Hon. S. A. Houghton, San Jose; Judge G. W. Schell, Modesto; Gen. Geo. A. Stoneman, and Maj. G. E. Gard, Los Angeles. The board is to meet in this city on May 20th, 1882. The last board for a similar purpose met at San Jose, and this is another recognition of the claims of Los Angeles to rank as one of the most important cities in the State.

Testing Their Hose.

The taps of the fire-bell at 6:20 P. M. yesterday called the fire department together to test their 1200 feet of new rubber hose, purchased through Mr. Furrey, of the Taylor Rubber Company, of San Francisco. The hose cost a dollar and a quarter a foot. Six hundred feet was laid along Main street, and attached to Confidence engine No. 2. The steam guage stood at 110 degrees and the water guage 170 degrees. Every foot of the hose stood the test nobly, and some severe ones were applied. Water was thrown up higher than the Santa Vibiana Cathedral without difficulty.

Bulldosing.

In the report of the second day of Phillipi's trial it was not intended to convey the impression the Honorable Court was being bulldozed; it was simply a side remark of one of the counsel inserted to spice the long, dry report of the trial. Per contra, Judge Adams exhibited remarkable ossification of his moral vertebræ, and though the excitement of the trial, the skirmishing of the counsel and the slowness of the proceedings were very trying on his patience, he manifested remarkable forbearance, and the firmness shown in his decisions made his rulings unquestioned.

A Mass Meeting.

A committee has been appointed to make arrangements for the holding of a mass meeting, at as early a day as possible, of all those in favor of the enforcement of the Sunday Law. Whether the law is in accord with the sentiment of everybody or not, all good citizens ought to obey it and see that it is obeyed, so long as it remains on the statute books.

Masonic Lecture.

Rev. O. C. Wheeler's lecture this evening on "Recent discoveries in ancient Freemasonry," to be delivered at Masonic Hall, McDonald Block, will undoubtedly be very interesting.

A gentleman on the train remarked that each resident of Riverside constituted himself a committee of one to entertain and

LOOK AFTER VISITORS

To that place. Of course we took that as a common-place remark and thought nothing more of it. It has been so frequently brought to mind since arriving here, however, that we will concede its whole truth. The proverbial hospitality has been shown on every hand, and the writer has occasion to return thanks to a number of the citizens. After being driven all over the whole country by a public-spirited gentleman, another kind-hearted citizen "took us in" and has very kindly done for us.

MR. O. T. DYER,

The banker, who evidently has a heart in proportion to his avoirdupois, and that is far from being small, gave us a kindly invitation to make our home with him during our stay, and as we do not believe in going back on our friends, we are here. You have all heard of

RIVERSIDE'S DRIVES,

And the beauty of its location. Well, if you haven't seen and experienced it you are an object for commiseration. There may be finer, but we will not believe it until we see them.

MAGNOLIA AVENUE

Is simply charming. It is laid out in a straight line, we are told, for the distance of fifteen miles. Seven miles of this is planted to trees—magnolias, palms, cacti, and various other trees and plants on either side, with a row of pepper trees in the center, with two wagon tracks, all in the best possible condition. The roadside and center for almost the whole length of the stretch is as carefully tended as a garden. Aligning the avenue are handsome places, all the way along, without interruption—

FINE LARGE HOUSES

And endless orange orchards—all in the highest state of cultivation, most of them varieties that San Francisco is telegraphing and begging for at $40 per thousand, and in some cases offering $50. We shall attempt no description of the drive, but could you have been along with this self-counstituted

"TASTING COMMITTEE,"

And stopped at Messrs. Cover's, Twogood's and other groves (the owners were nearly all away from home attending the fair, remember), which seemed especially fine, and sampled the product with such experts as

MESSRS. FRANK KIMBALL AND A. T. DEWY

To lead the way, if you hadn't pronounced both the drive and the oranges fine you could not have possessed more of a soul than a sore-eyed oyster or Oscar Wilde's calves.

THE FAIR

Was well patronized Thursday, the crowds surging through the aisles being interminable during the afternoon and evening. The formal opening occurred in the evening, having been postponed on account of the non-arrival of the chandeliers, which were not put in place until Thursday morning. Mr. Jas. Bettner presided at the exercises, which were opened with prayer by Rev. Geo. H. Deere. The chairman then introduced Mr. H. J. Rudisil, who delivered a short address congratulatory and instructive. Mr. Thos. A. Garry, of Los Angeles, was next introduced and gave a few pages of the unwritten history of the rise of orange growing in California, which proved very interesting. Judge North then presented to the Citrus Fair Association, on the part of Mr. L. M. Holt, a gavel, neatly made and mounted, made from lemon wood, inscribed as follows: "Presented to the Riverside Citrus Fair Association by L. M. Holt, editor Press and Horticulturist, Riverside."

EVERYBODY SWEARS BY HOLT

And the Press and Horticulturist here. As if to demonstrate that a gavel was needed, as the President rose to respond the band struck up a lively air, completely drowning the voice of the speaker, and flourish the gavel never so wildly, he had to take a back seat. An immense crowd was in attendance, and the consequent noise made the exercises very unsatisfactory to those not immediately about the speakers. Will give the

RESULT OF THE DIFFERENT COMMITTEES REPORTS

As soon as they can be procured. It was an impossibility to give a list of entries owing to the great number, there being over four hundred and fifty. Eastern people express themselves as delighted with the exhibit, but most of them look upon it in a

SORT OF DAZED WAY,

Scarcely comprehending the magnitude of the affair. A number of

LOS ANGELENOS ARRIVED

By yesterday's stage again. Among them Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henderson, Miss Gard and Miss Annie La Fetra. Miss Jennie Banbury, of Pasadena, also came over. Mr. Adams and Mr. Richardson, from San Gabriel, are here with exhibits.

REV. MR. LOOP, OF POMONA,

Has a fine exhibit, though not very large. His pickled olives are attracting attention as olive culture is coming to the front rapidly. S. J. M.

The Ivy Social.

The Ivy Social Club gave their regular monthly party at the Odd Fellows' Hall last night. The evening was spent very pleasantly. Wangeman's band furnished the music. CHINA VS. MEXICO.

A Good Puff for the Newspapers—It Pays to Advertise.

Yesterday afternoon an amusing trial came up before Justice Fisher, that points a sermon and adorns a narrative. It appears that last February Ah Sing, an almond-eyed citizen of the Chinese Empire, had a spotted tordillo horse stolen from him. A few weeks went by, and the police found the animal in the possession of Guillermo Mirando, a resident of Sonoratown. The police picked up Mirando, and, upon the Chinaman identifying the horse, returned it to him. In the testimony developed yesterday it was shown that Mirando's brother found the animal astray, it evidently having escaped the thief, and placed it under Guillermo's charge while he went off sheep ranching. Guillermo, like a sensible man, went to work, and inserted an advertisement in the La Cronica, a Spanish newspaper of this city, requesting the owner to come and pay for cost of pasturage and advertising. This cleared him of all intent of crime, and when the paper was produced in court as evidence a feeling of congratulation at the clearness of the evidence of his innocence, was manifested by the audience. Who says newspapers are not good? He who shuts his eyes to such evidence would declare the sun never shines.

A Worthy Enterprise.

E. H. Workman and Manuel Montijo have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of manufacturing the celebrated "Montijo Saddle Tree," also California hand made, plain, and silver mounted bits and spurs. They have opened a manufactory at 67 Aliso street, where they have placed in operation the latest and best improvements in machinery, thus enabling them to compete with any house on the coast. The attention of the trade throughout Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico is called to the fact that in quality and price this firm will duplicate those of any house on the Pacific Slope. Read their announcement, in new to-day, and send for a price list before purchasing elsewhere. These gentlemen understand the business thoroughly and guarantee to give satisfaction.

Steamer Passengers.

The following is a list of the Los Angeles passengers leaving San Pedro yesterday per steamer Orizaba for San Francisco and way ports: For San Francisco and way ports: Mrs J W White and child, Miss Taylor, R A Davis, W H Scott, R Davis, R Aiken, Geo Miner, Mrs Wm Fletcher, Mrs F Wilcox and child, Miss M L Orr, J Taylor, W E Drysdale, Chas Pessels, E M Luco, R F Glover, E Prouch and wife, P Miller and wife, M W Getchell, E P Halliday, Rev H C Bristol, F S Milton; 89 in steerage.

Port Harford—Chas Gasson.

Broom Corn.

The Los Angeles broom factory has recently received a large consignment of Eastern broom corn, which is not one whit better than the kind raised on the hill and mountain sides of Los Angeles county, but the proprietors are compelled to import large quantities because the farmers neglect its cultivation. Gov. Downey reports that a large quantity was exported from this county every season, until within the last few years. The broom factory will furnish seed gratis to every farmer who will undertake to raise broom corn, and pay a liberal price for the product when grown. This institution is a valuable one and should be well patronized, as the brooms made there are first-class in every respect.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. E. H. Workman continues to grow weaker, and is now confined to her bed.

Frank A. Higgins, U. S. Deputy Internal revenue officer, left for San Francisco this morning.

L. T. Fisher, local editor of the San Diego Union, is registered at the United States hotel. The TIMES had a pleasant call from him.

J. M. Davies and family arrived from San Diego on the Orizaba yesterday. Mr. Davies leaves for Topeka, Kansas, in a few days, for two or three months, leaving his family here.

Another Manufacturing Enterprise.

J. F. Fosmer & Son have built a 60x90 feet frame building in the rear of A. L. Bath's establishment, on Spring street, to be occupied as a foundry and machine shop. It will be called "The Farmers' Agricultural Foundry and Machine Shop." Everything in the way of manufacturing implements, castings, brass work, etc., will be manufactured in connection with Bath's Gang Plow. Steam power will be used, and the Los Angeles crude petroleum, recently rendered available as fuel by Mr. E. A. Edwards, will be used for that purpose.

South Bound Passengers.

The following passengers passed Fresno last night bound south, and will arrive in Los Angeles this morning at 7:55: Mr M S Peinberg, Deming; Mrs J Bruce, Tombstone; J Moore and wife, Deming; A J Bird, F M Doherty, Texas; L D Powdreff, H Mabury, J W Jenkinson, L A; J Brewer and wife, E E Burke, J W Mackbee, Newhall; A Keely, Benson; R A Stemegger, W A Muller, R I Burr, L P Abbott, H E Moore, Los Angeles; F M Spongle, W J Brokaw, Deming.

Attend the Meeting.

The TIMES would urge upon manufacturers, business men and all others interested in the city's welfare, to attend the meeting in the Western Union Telegraph office at eight o'clock this evening, and assist in the organization of a "Society for the promotion of manufactures."

Entertainment this Evening.

The members of Merrill Lodge will give one of their enjoyable entertainments this evening at Good Templars' Hall. The programme, which will be found in our advertising columns, is an attractive one, and no doubt there will be a large attendance.

S. C. University.

The second term of the collegiate year of the Southern California University closes on Tuesday, March 28th, and the third term begins on Wednesday, April 25, 1882.

Weather Report.

Observations taken by the U. S. Army Signal Service at 8:15 o'clock last night are as follows: Barometer, 29.96; Thermometer, 73; dew point, 40; wind, W; 15 miles per hour; clear. Maximum thermometer, 88; Minimum, 54.

THE CONCERT.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society to Receive a Benefit.

"Faith, Hope and Charity, but the Greatest of These is Charity"—"Cast Your Bread Upon the Waters."

Next Monday evening takes place the concert in aid of the Ladies' Relief Society of this city. No society in the city needs funds worse, or can use it to better advantage. The demands upon them are urgent and money must be had to relieve the distress that is constantly being brought to their attention. The programme is a very attractive one, and from the well-known reputation of the participants will be well rendered.

FOURTH ACT OF LA FAVORITA.

Mme. Gemma Tiozzo	Leonora
Sig. Antinori	Fernandez
Mr. Bartholome	Baldassare

SYNOPSIS.

The scene of the opera "La Favorita," which is one of the most dramatic and solidly elaborated of Donnizetti's works, is laid in Spain, in the kingdom of Castille, in the year 1340.

Alphonso XI, of Spain, and Fernando, a novice in the Monastry of St. James of Compostella, are both violently in love with Leonora Guzman, a lady of great beauty and intellectual gifts, for whose sake Alphonso came near repudiating his Queen, while Fernando was driven from his community. Leonora having left her father's house and placed herself under the King's protection, expecting him to make her his wife, her social position is most dangerously compromised, and when Fernando, in perfect ignorance of these circumstances, entreats her to become his bride, she, though returning his affection, counsels him, to leave her and seek in the world for honor and glory, giving him a scroll containing his commission. He goes into battle with Alphonso against the Moors, distinguishes himself greatly, saving the King's life. The King desiring to honor him offers to grant him any favor in his power, when Fernando tells him of his love for a lady of his court.

Alphonso has heard that he is being betrayed by some one, but does not suspect who until Leonora is named by Fernando. Then he resolves to take his vengeance by having them instantly wed. Leonora desiring to save Fernando from shame, sends her attendant to tell him of her standing and position. This messenger is detained by the King, so when Fernando, still in ignorance, comes to lead her to the altar, she, supposing he knows all and forgives all, gladly accompanies him. At the close of the ceremony the Superior of his convent appears, and by his expressions of surprise reveals the shame that has been put upon him. He then publicly denounces the King, breaks his sword and returns to his monastery intent on resuming his vows.

The fourth act of this opera opens in the chapel of the convent, where the monks are preparing for the ceremony. Fernando is called away to attend a young novice who has presented himself, seeking shelter and repose. He discovers the stranger to be Leonora, who has come seeking his forgiveness and to explain her apparent deception. On finding she was innocent of any attempt to deceive him he urges her to fly with him. She, on the contrary, exhorts him to devote himself to Heaven. While he is still uttering his vows of love she succumbs to protracted suffering and falls dead at his feet.

Human nature is a curious study. The other night at the Union Depot one of the depot hands, while sweeping out, thought he saw a twenty-five cent bit under one of the benches. He went down on his knees immediately, and covered the piece with his hand. While he was in this position, a well-dressed lady tapped him on the shoulder, and said, "I just dropped that." "What is it, madam?" was the gentlemanly interrogatory. "I think it is a quarter." He placed it, without further parleying, in her hand, and she, tightly holding it, went away. A ONE HALF INTEREST IN THE

Horne & West

ELECTRO-MAGNETIC BELT.

THIS IS THE same belt which is now manufactured by W. J. Horne, and which he is extensively advertising as the W. J. HORNE BELT. This Belt was invented and patented by myself. Afterward I assigned one half interest in this Belt to W. J. Horne, which he now owns in common with me. This Belt has taken two premiums at State Fairs; but as I have invented another BELT, of double the power of the HORNE & WEST BELT, and much superior to it in every respect, and which I make and sell for ONE HALF the cost of the old Horne & West Belt, I will sell my one-half interest, in the Horne and West Belt cheap for cash.
